

ASTM F-1387 PERFORMANCE REPORTS

The purpose of this test procedure is to establish that any intermixed combination of DK-LOK® and Swagelok® individual components will provide leak-free performance synonymous with pure assemblies when subjected to various conditions inherent to the environments for which compression tube fittings are commonly exposed in practical every day installations.

